

Mornington Peninsula's Oldest Vineyard Est. 1972

Elgee Park, the oldest vineyard on the Mornington Peninsula, was originally the country retreat of Baillieu & Sarah Myer and their children. In 1972 the first vines were planted on the property. Small parcels of grapes, cool nights and warm summers, produce wines of great finesse, depth and balance.

Tasting note

Colour: Pale Straw

Bouquet: Aromas of ripe pears, honeysuckle & hints of lychee.

Palate: Poached pear and white blossom, folds into a delicate palate. A beautifully balanced wine with maximum fruit weight, its freshness remains all the way to the dry finish.
