

It is transparent and clear thanks to the strict filtering and distillation process.

The aroma is complex, fresh, floral and you can clearly recognize all the main ingredients.

On the palate it is soft and persistent. Some fresh juniper notes jump up and mix balancing and harmonizing the particular Genepi character. You can also appreciate a citrus scent brought by the addition of orange peel.

The distinctive qualities of this Gin are many. it is an excellent digestive if drunk straight and may as well refreshing if you add some soda water or tonic. If mixed it can add a special touch to both classic cocktails such as GinTonic and new creations
